ACCOMMODATIONS

Luxuriously-appointed accommodations at Magee Homestead are inspired by the natural beauty of Wyoming's high mountain desert landscape, offering the ideal retreat after a day of rejuvenating outdoor adventure and wellness offerings. The refined collection of nine historically restored cabins—each with distinctly lush interior design by Simeone Deary Design Group of Chicago, Illinois—feature original artwork, rich furnishings and plush comforts.

(2) Luxury Cabin Residences—Includes one two-bedroom with mini-kitchen, spacious living area with fireplace and two bathrooms; and one three-bedroom with full kitchen, dining room, spacious living area with fireplace, and three bathrooms.

(7) Luxury Cabin Suites—Each of the luxuriously restored period cabins incorporate Western character within their ample space. Select units provide a private fireplace and creek-side bistro deck.

Maximum Occupancy—(27) Adults*

*Note: Magee Homestead is an adult-centric experience where Western adventure meets revitalizing wellness. A full buyout allows exclusivity, along with the option of up to 27 guests and children of all ages to share this private luxury guest ranch experience.
